

Ways forward for impact assessment: conference 22 September 2009

27 August 2009 - ECORYS is hosting the seminar 'Ways forward for impact assessment' on September 22 2009 in Brussels. This seminar is part of the ECORYS Seminar and Vision Paper Cycle, which celebrates ECORYS' 80th anniversary this year. The aim of Ways Forward for Impact Assessment seminar is to reflect on the past and the future of EU ex-ante impact assessment, in particular the difficult marriage between objective evidence and stakeholder input. It reflects on how these two main sources of information for impact assessment can be moved closer together, for instance, through improving the evidence base of stakeholder input. More information on this website.